

Resolved, We support the passage of legislation legalizing the adult use of cannabis, regulating its production and sale, pardoning those currently incarcerated for cannabis-related offenses, and expunging criminal records for those convicted of cannabis-related offenses, and the development of an equitable industry that provides opportunity for communities disproportionately impacted by cannabis prohibition.